Membership No : 010066561   8th October 2004

Dear Mr. D Dhammaloka

Welcome to Membership of the British Computer Society

I am delighted to welcome you to the BCS and enclose details of many of the benefits you can enjoy from your membership. If you require further information on any of our services or activities please contact our Customer Support Team on +44 (0)1793417568 and they will be pleased to help you. For security reasons your Membership Card will follow under separate cover, but you can register immediately via the Members area of the website for online services and access to our exclusive member offers.

As the industry body for Information Technology professionals and the leading Chartered Engineering Institution for IT, we are here to help you at every stage of your career. We want to listen to your views and suggestions and to continue to develop products and services relevant to the needs of our members. We carry out regular member surveys to help us in meeting these needs. However, if at any time during your membership you wish to provide us with feedback do not hesitate to get in touch (via gofurther@hq.bcs.org.uk)

We value your membership and are here to help.

With best wishes

Andy Lewis

computing

Dear BCS Member,

One of the benefits of membership to The British Computer Society is a free subscription to the leading weekly IT newspaper Computing.

Computing concentrates on success stories and how to drive business advantage through the latest technology. If you want real, independent news and analysis, case studies that make a difference and all the latest career and management issues, then join over 100,000 subscribers and receive your own copy, starting now.

To take up this offer please visit the online Computing registration site:

www.vnuservices.co.uk/computing

Here the entire range of Computing products and services are available to choose from, including:

• Computing print and digital edition
• Specialist monthly digital editions – Public Sector & SME
• Email News bulletins – Essentials & Public Sector
• Jobs by Email and Career Path.

When completing the online registration form, please ensure that you state you are a BCS member and provide your membership number in the appropriate field. The information you provide on this form enables our editorial team to continue to deliver a publication that is focused on the professional skills and status of our readers.

Should you have any questions regarding the Computing registration process please feel free to contact our customer care team by email on computing_queries@vnu.co.uk or by phone on 020 7316 9200.

Yours sincerely,

Romina Brunas
